BENEFITS TO YOUR MINISTRY

Ministries have unique communications needs today. The internet provides unique communications channels to reach your community. There is a Harvest for God's Kingdom that needs effective mass communication to bring in. Covenant Designs is a MINISTRY COMMUNICATIONS firm to get your message across to make your goals a success. The "Covenant" in Covenant Designs means reliability—faithfulness—integrity in word and deed—we go the extra mile to communicate your ministry's message professionally and accurately.

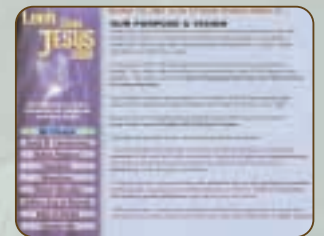

Whether the communications media is Internet (websites, e-newsletters, e-mail marketing), Print (bulletins, newsletters, catalogs, mailers, etc.) or Multimedia (video, presentations, CD-ROMs), Covenant Designs creates communication pieces that put your ministry in the best light. Just as the Statue of Liberty stands for the promise of freedom in a new world, let Covenant Designs LIGHT THE WAY to your goals.

THE TIME IS NOW

Communication via the Internet has become the preferred method of sending and receiving information. In fact, chances are that over 71% of your congregation is already online. People expect your ministry to have a Website and they expect your information to be accurate and up-to-date, accessible anytime.

Just having any kind of Website may not meet the expectations of the user or your ministry's goals. Today's user wants information that is relevant to their lives; outdated content will only leave them frustrated. Your website needs to communicate the essence of your ministry in a way that integrates with the look and feel of your printed communications.

We design your website to be a cost-effective communication tool. Unlike print materials, the web allows you to edit and update information without the expense of having to reprint a physical brochure, or promotional piece. Let us show you how to improve quality and effectiveness of your message while saving production and postage expense by reducing the number of mailings made to your congregation.

GRAPHIC DESIGN & PRINTING

Covenant Designs provides churches and ministries with Graphic Design and Printing services. Your ministry's graphic design plays a vital role in the image you leave people with. It is the visual counterpart to how you are heard and received. Effective design goes beyond just transferring information to fully communicating the intentions and heart-context behind the message.

As Covenant Designs integrates your ministry's presence through your LOGO, BROCHURE, BULLETIN, ADS, MAILERS, FUNDRAISERS, POSTCARDS, and MULTIMEDIA PRESENTATIONS you effectively project the right message to grow and succeed.
